Nice sushi restaurant in San Carlos right by the Caltrain station. They have yummy innovative rolls. Price may be on the higher side for sushi rolls. Waiter was very attentive. Overall a good experience dining here. I look forward to trying their ramen next time I'm in the area. Note. The restaurant is closed on Sundays though. read more.

What Natasha Ross doesn't like about Aya Sushi:

The staff are friendly and nice people. I liked them. The sushi did not taste very fresh, and was fairly standard. Nothing to write home about there. The tonkatsu ramen broth was fairly good, but needs a little extra love to get into the good/great zone for me. The noodles were in a similar boat, they were a little overdone I thought.

Visually it could do with some more color. It resembled a bit too much a chicken no... read more.
