This is a very polarizing restaurant to seem, but I actually dig it. Maybe I don't have enough Chinese food experience, but I was quite impressed. I've tried the crispy chicken which I was blown away with, the double cooked pork which was solid, and my girlfriend got the chow fun noodles with beef twice. The first time we agreed the chow fun was great, the second time she wasn't into it but I enjoyed the leftovers t... read more. What

Hellen A doesn't like about Young Chow Restaurant:

Very rude for no reason, asking him a question about the food we don't know it's a bother????...food is ok but not worth the disrespect we got from the older man. read more. With original Asian spices delicious traditional courses are prepared in the kitchen of Young Chow Restaurant in Arlington, You can take a break at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
