Visiting from Atlanta so we compare Jamaica restaurant's food to Island Cafe on Memorial Dr in Decatur. The beans rice was moist and flavorful. The cabbage was buttery and the texture was nice. Large portions and friendly staff. The place seats 11, the atmosphere is cool, the decor nice but the floor weren't clean which explains 4 stars instead of 5. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What Lucile Beer doesn't like about Flames:

The staff at the counter were not welcoming and very rude. The food was way too expensive! When I got home the food was cold. The rice was mushy and there were a few hard pieces. The curried goat didn't look appetizing. The vegetables were very watery and had no favor. My biggest regret is eating this food. Now my stomach is sick from this. Please beware eating here.
