I ordered four times last month the take (pizzas, pasta, Stromboli, soups) from this place. Every time the food was fresh and wonderfully delicious. They use high-quality food ingredients, and I suspect that their soups and some of their pastas are homemade because they taste so good. My wife and I also like the foods because they are not oily as those from some restaurants. In addition, prices are very reasonable an... read more. What Louisa Schinner doesn't like about Casa Rosaria's Italian Ristorante:

Bad service over all. My lady and I placed an order at the end of the night last night from a hotel where we stayed. The man repeated the order three times and still missed the tenders and put cheese on a sandwich that was to have No cheese. They didn't replace the meal the next day. Thanks for the service.
