RJ Tagorda likes about Navarre:

If you love fine European cuisine or want food cooked with love and care, come here. I've been here twice with family, and each time, I'm blown away by the level of service, quality of food, and comfort of the ambience. It's a hidden gem in Portland for people who appreciate fresh, fresh ingredients cooked delicately and with skill. Must visit in my humble opinion. read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink.

What R A doesn't like about Navarre:

Ate here twice. Food was lacking in consistency (execution was off both times; we had undercooked grains, and the other time the potatoes), menu lacks a bit of cohesion. Service was above average. Atmosphere was welcoming. Wine menu was off the charts. I recommend for the wine selection and some of the smaller plates to pair with a good bottle. Overall, there's stiff competition at this spots price point $60 for a mea... read more. The fresh and tasty juices listed on the drinks menu optimally complement the dishes of the local, the restaurant offers also dishes from the European environment. If you want to have breakfast, a hearty brunch awaits you, and you can look forward to traditional Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta.
