The check in system is weird you have to stand in line to get put on the waiting list. And give them your number to text. Once you receive a text you have to wait a few additional minutes in another line before you can enter the restaurant to actually be seated. This is a deterrent on a hot day. My food was good. I order the 14 oz ribeye steak with a loaded baked potato and a house salad. My server had too many table... read more.
