Always an excellent choice for a nice dinner in Houston with friends and family. The service is top notch, courteous and friendly. I'm hoping Nino's recovers well from the pandemic and gets all their restaurants back to read more. The rooms on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Nino's Italian Bar:

We went to lunch this week. I drove in all the way from The Woodlands to have lunch with my husband. We waited an hour for our food. The poor waitress was doing the best she could. They need more help in the restaurant. We ended up having to box our food up and take it with us. My husband had a pm meeting. We've been long time customers of Ninos. The food is good. They just need to get more staff members to help mana... read more.
