The place from Pittsburgh offers 81 different meals and drinks on the menu at an average price of $13.2. What User likes about Bridges Pittsburgh:

They don't honor open table reservations! The hostess told me this very loudly in front of other people who had walked in without reservations, so everyone seemed angry with me for trying to cut ahead. They need to fix this with open table and not take it out on me. Also, even though there were plenty of available tables, it was taking them forever to seat people read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Bridges Pittsburgh:

From start to finish it was awful. I waited fifteen minutes before anyone sat me. Then the waitress didn't come over for ten minutes. She brought our group water with no ice. The food was awful and more than. Likely was microwaved read more. A visit to Bridges Pittsburgh is particularly valuable due to the comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, Naturally, you should also taste the tasty burgers, accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges provided. If you decide to come for breakfast, a tasty brunch is ready for you, Besides the yummy sandwiches, small salads and other snacks also make a good snack.
