Food was average but the wait time was around 25-30 mins for a simple beef sub. I lost track of how many people went up the front to ask where there food was. I dont think it's the staffs fault, they seem underresourced and have no clear system in place to get food out, I.e someone who ordered way before you could get there food, seemed like it only got made when you reminded them, needs to be a better ticketing syst...
