What User likes about Le Macaron French Pastries: bonjour? for a mini-palat adventure this is a quick place to satisfy some macaroonian requirements! came late on a Saturday night and most of the baked goods were sold like the chocolate, cake, eclairs. but excited they try the pistachios and lemon macarone, very tasty! I will definitely visit the gelato bar again and taste the other goodies! she was super friendly! read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WiFi for its customers, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. If the weather are right, you can also eat outside. What User doesn't like about Le Macaron French Pastries: Macarons are my favorite dessert, so I've had my fair share. I was excited to try a new patisserie. Sad to say, these aren't high quality. They taste like the frozen variety from Costco. Like another reviewer said, they're gooey, not chew, and the shell isn't up to what a macaron shell should be. It's not even slightly crunchy. While looking at the macarons in the case, I could see the poor texture of many of the mac... read more.
