What User likes about Bonsai Kitchen:

Very good. I still work around the menu, but the ananas fried rice with chicken def has hung me. I got the bark, it was a bit dirty. but this place is a jewel because eating fresh tastes as they cut the sweet before making their order, love that. Also the hours are a tad strange and it can be hard to get them on the phone to preorder. the owner seems to be beautiful. photos are from the cashew nuts Stir-Fry. read more. As a guest, you can use the WLAN of the establishment at no extra cost, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. If the weather are right, you can also be served outside. What User

doesn't like about Bonsai Kitchen:

Must be new owners. Ordered take out. $48 worth. Wasnt going to leave a review was told i would be credited for the sushi roll that had plastic still wrapped around the crab meat all the way down the roll and was nice to the guy and said stuff happens. Must be the low lighting in there. I almost swallowed some. My card was not credited. Grocery store has bigger sushi. If you think this is good sushi you havent had go... read more. The catering service is also provided by the restaurant for its customers, Also, the guests of the establishment love the comprehensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer. The fine Sushi such as Nigiri and Inside-Out however, is the undisputed highlight of this place, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian dishes.
