Raising Cane's Chicken Fingers has garnered mixed reviews, reflecting a decline in quality for some customers. While many praise the crispy chicken strips and signature cane sauce, complaints highlight shrinking portion sizes and excessive saltiness. Additionally, issues like undercooked fries and noisy dining conditions have deterred regular patrons. On the upside, fast service and a clean environment stand out positively, with some visitors thrilled by the flavor and quality of the food. Overall, while the restaurant offers some delightful options for chicken lovers, consistency in delivery appears to be a pressing concern among its clientele.
