The Menu of Metro Eats from Brooklyn contains about 29 different dishes and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $6.8. This restaurant presents a mixed bag of experiences, attracting both devoted fans and dissatisfied patrons. While many appreciate the variety, particularly the classic New York sandwiches, others have lamented issues with saltiness and service quality. Complaints about food temperature and preparation persist, with some citing overly priced items that fail to meet expectations. However, friendly counter staff often redeem the dining experience. Overall, while its cozy atmosphere and diverse menu may draw customers in, diners should proceed with caution regarding service consistency and food execution. A visit may yield great food, but it's not guaranteed.
