Maybe I'm biased, but you can never go wrong with ice cream when you're in the Midwest. Amy's ice cream did not disappoint me. I walked by three times, debating if I should order something or not. Their cute signage and names of their ice cream specials caught my eye. Eventually, I gave in and ordered 'The Child' from the popular Disney series. It was Oreo ice cream, Andes mints, waffle cone, and hot fudge. It was am... read more. What

User doesn't like about Amy's Ice Creams:

I grabbed a shake while at the airport. The person waiting on me watched as I entered my tip and was clearly not happy with what was given. She proceeded to slam objects around (clearly displeased) and passed me my shake while avoiding eye contact. I politely said thank you while she turned her back and walked away giving no response back. I will not be returning to this establishment and hope they can work with thei... read more.
