Their brunch was outstanding. I wish the restaurant itself were bigger, but I still loved the decor, glassware, and overall atmosphere. We had the biscuits, amaretto French toast, lobster eggs benedict, and a mimosa flight, and everything was cooked well with lots of flavor. I thought the toppings of the amaretto French toast would make it sickly sweet, but they all combined well. I definitely want to try their dinne... read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Nineteen B:

they only get 2 stars because there was no waiting time to take place. the service was very bad, table was sticky and dirty and eating was fast food quality best. not worth what was paid. not the experience we had here before. everything it needed was this a bad experience....we will not be back and certainly not recommend. If you're craving some spicy South American cuisine, you've come to the right place: tasty dishes, roasted with fish, seafood, and meat, though corn, beans, and potatoes are also in the menu, At the bar, you can unwind with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. You can just get one of the fine sandwiches, a small salad or another snack, if you're not that ravenous, and you can look forward to the scrumptious traditional seafood cuisine.
