had an excellent experience here. the staff was friendly and efficient (even during work hard) on a Sunday evening. eating was very good, both the spicy roasted rice and the sushi we ordered. I recommend this restaurant, which may be for the place it replaces (also thai-centric and not bad), but this similar concept with a new name, new property and new energy is a great step forward for the food of circular traffic. Unfortunately, I did not have a good experience. Went there with a friend for lunch. The menu looked great so we were excited to try the rolls. We each ordered 2 rolls and they were just plain tasteless and the wasabi had zero kick to it. The service was good and the waitress was really nice, but the food was disappointing. I get better tasting rolls in Publix. read more.
