Yes, this place might have some problems with service and freshness of pies, but it's probably reflective of the area this location is in and how much money they are making or not making. The first time I was here, the lady at the counter left me confused because she couldn't explain properly what kind of pies and other similar items they had. However, she wasn't rude or anything. This is a quiet clean place and I lo... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations.
