Unfortunately we didn't make pictures. We arrived during dinner hours and were blessed to find a parking space in Sally's parking. We have a table right away. The restaurant was clean and stylish inside and outside. We didn't have to wait long for our food and it was excellent. I had the cancer and my man had the garlic jumbo garnelen with a side of hush puppies. The staff was very nice and the service was great. In a... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, and there is no-charge WLAN. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Seafood Sally's:

For first time visit I can honestly say it will be my last. The server was the only good experience, the manager Ed was very rude and has a funky attitude. With covid rising daily I watched him put his hands on the mouth of straws without gloves on. The owner was made aware of this and did nothing. There was only one young lady that was wearing gloves while making drinks. One bartender was touching the ice with bare... read more.
