Aside from a fiasco getting the table that we wanted, with people at the hostess stand and seemingly a manager trying to force to sit at a table we didn't want, the overall dining experience was good. Server did a nice job, hibachi chef was highly entertaining, and the place had a good vibe and design. Food was very good too. The people obsessing over where people sit need to chill out, and worry less about trying to... read more. The restaurant offers free WiFi for its customers. What The Truth doesn't like about 9 East Hibachi Asian Kitchen: Less than Mediocre ..... Rice is still one of the cheapest food products you can buy, and this place measures it out as if they were rationing it The guys cooking the food on the hibachi are playfully entertaining But the food is just a single salty, taste profile And the female servers all seem to have a problem with smiling Very expensive way of raising your blood pressure with salt Waste of money, and Time McDonald's woul...
