Here you can find the menu of L&j Shack in Lauderhill. At the moment, there are 15 courses and drinks on the card. BFF, formerly known as L&J, presents an intriguing blend of culinary delights and customer service challenges. While many patrons rave about their delicious offerings—particularly the French toast and chicken tenders—disappointment arises from frequent order inaccuracies and slow service. Complaints about missing items and lengthy waits mar the experience for some. Despite these hurdles, the restaurant's friendly atmosphere and appealing prices make it a tempting choice. Overall, BFF stands out as a hidden gem deserving of another chance, but improvements in service and order accuracy are essential for a more satisfying dining experience.
