If you like the real stuff, this is the place. I don't see how it isn't tops in the region. You know it's legit by the crust on the focaccia and guanciale in the carbonara among many other things. They're also really nice and happy to answer questions. Don't be turned off by the location; chef has long track record working in Michelin joints in nyc, lucky to have him in town. Kudos, chef and team! read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities.

WLAN is available without additional charges. What User doesn't like about Il Centro Alimentari:

Poor seating, pricy, great food, great service, and plating, amazing bread, Italian cold cuts, pepper spread, honey drizzled goats cheese. Don't eat the tiramisu, not great, pancetta not great. Amazing prosciutto puffs. great expresso cake, wine good, great Italian seltzers. Owner is from Australia, worked in Micheline star restaurants in Italy and NYC. Hard working chef. Not the greatest location for him, but amazin...
