Spent $52 on 2 French dips that were the most disgusting food I've ate out there. Not to mention the onion rings were so burnt had to send them back to get new ones. The wings were phenomenal (garlic ones) service was good . Very disappointed after not being out there to eat in so long and it used to be excellent. read more. At Gateway in Fort Peck, tasty meat is freshly roasted on an open flame and garnished with delicious sides, Furthermore, the drinks list in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and comprehensive variety of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try. When you're not so hungry, you can just treat yourself to one of the tasty sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack, At the bar, you can unwind with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
