We ordered the French toast, bacon and eggs, and a SMASH burger. The wait staff was so friendly....brought out crackers for my infant who was having a melt down. The food was absolutely delicious. I think we just found our new favorite restaurant!! read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What everything was extremely inexpensive, tasted like cafeteria food. we have chips and guac, we must have got the bottom of the bag because it was all crushed chips. blue cheese dressing was a strange texture and the black bohnenburger was very dry, almost wavy. it also took one because even if we saw only 2 tables, the server also waited for tables for madrone taphouse.
