republic bakery alebrije share the same building. the conchas were super sweet and super tasty! the cinnamon rolls were great and the nutella roll was super! I love that was opened on the south side. there is definitely a lot of charm to this place too. Apparently the building was built over 70 years ago. That's great! read more. What User doesn't like about Republic Bakery:

the people are super nice, but I suggest asking when the bread was baked and when the coffee was made. the pastries look great, visually enticing, but they were very dry and shattered. the coffee tasted like he was burned. I left the afternoon, so maybe I should have been earlier this morning. for the price I would expect everything to taste fresh. I could try again, but for now there are many bakeries in the south s... read more.
