The restaurant from Peoria offers 74 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average price of $8.5. What User likes about Taqueria Los Angeles:

I just tried the pig tacos and they were very great. The Taco shells were perfectly finished. No iced tea though on the menu. Bummer. The waitress was kind. I live on the east side, but I'm from Los Angeles. If I'm back in the neighborhood, I'll come back least. read more. What User doesn't like about Taqueria Los Angeles:

Giving three stars for the beef tacos alone, they were delicious! Lots of meat, as most taco places tend to skimp.

They were fried just right. Though the fish tacos were deliciously meaty also, I did not care for the sauce, it is orange in color but tasted like mayo. The salsa left a lot to be desired, it was spicy but not anything spectacular.

The beans and rice were also meh, very middle of the road. Lastly, there... read more. For breakfast, you can enjoy a diverse brunch at Taqueria Los Angeles, as much as you want, Particularly with the bite-sized Tapas, you can't do anything wrong, because there is something for all tastes. Even the versatile, fine Mexican cuisine, traditionally cooked with corn, beans and chili, is very popular with the guests.
