The Card of Musashi's from Seattle includes about 114 different dishes and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $13.6. What User likes about Musashi's:

The place was really nice, clean and convient place in downtown international district. The spider roll I got was delicious. There was nothing bad that I could say how the role tasted. I will say that this is basically a bite, because if you try to eat it with two bites, the seaweed is not shared nicely. I just ordered the one part because I wanted a snack, but if I had to go back and get a meal, I would have bought... read more. What User doesn't like about Musashi's:

Expensive and low quality sushi. I got chirashi bowl, eel and tea. I paid total 33 USD. I went around 1 pm and There was only one another customer. I went this place thinking it is similar to one in University district but quality doesn't match. They accept credit card. read more. Musashi's from Seattle creates for you scrumptious sushi (e.g., Maki and Sashimi), in addition to many additional variations, always fresh with ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, Also, the visitors of the restaurant love the large variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer. Freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat are the main ingredients in the healthy Japanese cuisine of Musashi's.
