What User likes about Waxman's: Food was fine, the service was good although the server had too many tables assigned to him to give the level of attention to each that the restaurant of this price point warrants. The menu was good but limited, kids were running around while people were trying to enjoy their date night dinners. Seems to have an identity crisis is it an upscale restaurant offering contemporary cuisine or is it a mid to upscale family... read more.
