The place from Queens offers 60 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average price of $6.6. What Naimul Islam likes about Zaitun Halal:

The portions are HUGE. I got the half-chicken platter. The half chicken itself is quite big. It came with 2 sides and 2 sauce of your choice and a bread cut into pieces. The size of the sides are also generous. And all for only $12.50. You can comfortably share between 2-3 people. read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, and there is no-charge WLAN. What Atiya Rise doesn't like about Zaitun Halal:

Included bread, not indicated at all, I have a gluten allergy, waste of money for me since I can not eat it. The chicken was under seasoned as well and in the salad it was underwhelming read more. The Zaitun Halal from Queens dishes out various tasty seafood meals, The customers also rave about the fine, airy flatbread that can be dipped into the homemade hummus or a yoghurt dip; the intense combination of figs with goat cheese is also one of the favorites from the diverse cuisine of the Middle East. Sometimes you may not want to consume a lot, in this case one of the delicious sandwiches, a small salad or another snack is just right, The dishes of this establishment can also be enjoyed at home or at the party thanks to a catering service.
