The restaurant from Waldorf offers 72 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average $8.8. What User likes about Thai Flavor:

When I visit Waldorf, this is my first choice for lunch or dinner... Unless I'm going to LaPlata, I have another favorite there. I love the Tom Kha Ga and you can get a large size. Drunken Noodles Veggie or Chicken is a family favorite as well as the pad thai. We had a family friend who lived in Thailand several years. He said he felt like he was back there. You really can't go wrong at Thai Flavor of Waldorf! read more. You can use the WLAN of the restaurant at no extra cost, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What lorrie doesn't like about Thai Flavor:

the only good thing about this place is the texture of their tofu. It's pretty expensive and the owner (old asian male) is racist with a bad attitude. I ordered dine in then he told me to leave. wasted $16 to have the tofu and that was EXACTLY what was left out of my order. if you're not asian or white, you're not welcome apparently. read more. With the comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Thai Flavor becomes even more attractive, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. If you'd like something after-dinner treat to finish off, Thai Flavor does not disappoint with its large selection of desserts, With the popular spices and fish sauces, Thai menus are prepared here.
