Em's is a small café that had a warm and welcoming atmosphere. The building itself was older in style, but that made it better. The food was good, although the menu was not extensive. The service was great and helpful. The coffee was selfish, which was nice when we wanted a refill. The portion sizes were suitable for a Sunday brunch and left us satisfied. Great place to visit and eat! read more. What Diamond Halvorson doesn't like about Em's: Em's was awesome! I loved the food, and the service was great. But don't go if you're expecting a fast meal, it's pretty popular so make sure to make a reservation, and the food can take a little while to get to you. read more.
