What Craig likes about Paramount Piroshki: The service is remarkably friendly. It's a small family run company. Nice people. The food goes back a long way, based in Piroshkis, second is bagel dogs. Their son added more items later. I'm a picky eater and haven't tried much, but the bagel dogs are the best I've had (I had the Polish). It's perhaps not fair to compare these at nearly $4 each to supermarket ones under $1 each, but there is no comparison. Great find. read more. What John V doesn't like about Paramount Piroshki:

They do free samples; I definitely recommend deep-frying the circular ones, the other one 's don 't fry as well, but you can do it, if you 're careful; piroshki is like a ....savoury donut. The beef and mushroom, spinach and cheese, and chicken, rice, and cheese, are all appropriate for reform Jewish diets.... read more.
