we visited after a graduation ceremony in kirkville. I had the sloppy jolene with a side of potato cake and it was excellent. the bungalow was perfectly roasted, the cake was very tasteful. our waiting staff was attentive and kept my waterglass full. they also wad quickly to bring the two animals I ordered. my father had the mac and bee and ate everything without leaving rest. he said that the sauce was above and be... this place is terrible with eating and service. I ordered two meals, one was completely kept and the other was raw. the personal was not encouraging and seemed like they wanted to play on their phones as a decent food experience. the prices for which to eat are far too much for the portions and for the quality. can't you get a burger with fritten? good luck!
