eating was very good, surprisingly good for Utah. The facility and the ambience remind me of a Zupa's, nothing special. I would do this for a good option for very good Indian cuisine, but not for a special dinner or celebration read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What amym doesn't like about Paradise Biryani Pointe:

The food was very good. Service was tentative, inexperienced and lacked knowledge about the menu. As the entrees were being served, our server informed me that they were out of the lamb and thus I had to order another entree. Common sense would suggest that he could have shared this information at the outset. read more. With typical Indian spices fine menus and sides like rice or naan, they cook fresh at Paradise Biryani Pointe in Draper. On the menu there are also several Asian dishes. You can also relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink. Furthermore, the guests love the successful combination of different meals with new and partially experimental products - a good example of successful Asian Fusion.
