What User likes about Tween The Tides: I can't wait to go back and try more menu items. please stop how expensive it is. they are located in a place on cape cod. it's expensive. they pay over $10/lb for fudge. they should be ready for something that is so good. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Tween The Tides: the gyro was good and spicy, ut a little broth heavy. the Cheesesteak was delicious, but also a little to crisp hard (I wish the roll that it used was less chewing and softer.) overall good, but very expensive and the shares that we did not big to match the prices. read more. Freshly harvested mint, crunchy salad, sprouts and a splash of lime combined with rice noodles and meat - all of this can be found not only during your vacation in Vietnam in the menu, but also when visiting the local Tween The Tides in PROVINCETOWN, and you may look forward to the tasty traditional seafood cuisine. You can just get one of the scrumptious sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack, if you're not that ravenous, They also present scrumptious South American dishes to you on the menu.
