Perfect BBQ ribs. Brisket is not up to Texas standard. I would like to add some color. The establishment is a quintessential wooden shack with a delicious smoke smell. You order at one window and pick up at the other. My impression of the employees is pretty colorful too. They seem like young old school guys who drive pick-up trucks and love to make BBQ. I forgot to mention that the smoked chicken is really good too.... read more. When the weather is good you can also be served outside, and there is complimentary WLAN. What User doesn't like about Smokin D's Bbq:

I've come here for years and always got a decent portion. Yea it's always been a little expensive for what you get but that's expected these days. However today I got the usual rib lunch that I've ordered over 30 times now.....

usually I would receive 3 large ribs or up to 5 small ones. Today I was given 3 of the smallest ribs I ever imagined..basically half of the amount I usually get for the 13.78 dollars plus tip.... I... read more.
