The Menu of Stone's Throw from Seymour contains about 124 different dishes and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $10.9. What User likes about Stone's Throw:

Service was not good The food was incorrectly cooked and my guest didn't even get her salad until after her entree and asking different people. The gelato for desert tasted like regular chocolate ice cream. My other guest ordered her steak medium well and it was rare. Sadly disappointing read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Stone's Throw:

The food was good but half the menu was out when we went. Very few options for dinner. We were seated near the bar and the bar was VERY loud. A table of guests next to us who were eating their dessert said they just wanted to get out of there asap read more. For breakfast, a diverse brunch is offered at Stone's Throw in Seymour that you can sample according to your mood, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and comprehensive selection of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), also relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and you can look forward to the fine traditional seafood cuisine.
