What User likes about Glory Days Grill In Eldersburg: My experience here was top notch. The first hostess held the door open for me and greeted me with a smile and a pleasant tone. The second hostess walked me to my seat and took my drink order and when my server Sean K. came to my table, he had my drink with him. He was very attentive to my needs and made sure that my dining experience was great. I will definitely be returning to this restaurant. Anddddd, the bathroom... read more. I visited the glory days in alexandria and had much better experience there. our server didn't know what was on tap, so I had to stand up and watch myself. I had to go after him a few times because he just didn't come to our table. when we were willing to pay, I went to him because he was busy standing in the entrance and talking his head with a friend. at one point I counted 12 in fro...
