Petra Market is your local destination for fine Mediterranean fair. It's menu its packed with delicious delicacies like Falafel, Humus, Lentil Soup, stuffed grape leaves and many various desserts. In addition, they had a great selection of groceries and products you wouldn't find at your typical supermarket. If you haven't tried the Baklava, you're missing out. Also, the owner was more then delightful when we stopped... read more. I drove by this place today; the plaza sign is there....their phone rings....but no signs of life at this location. Maybe pandemic forced them to shut them down, and never reopened, or this is just a front store. I can't give more than one star for something that does not even exist, I say no stars read more.
