What User likes about Johnson's Crossroads: waitresses are always super friendly to my son. parking can be difficult so they must park over the road. breakfast is affordable and great! lunch specialties are always good and much nice to choose. just reason why I didn't give 5stars is because they could do something more about the definition of orders that come wrong. we still like this place. read more. What User doesn't like about Johnson's Crossroads: that was my first time to eat here. we ordered the delivery. suffocated chicken and sloppy. each plate came with two sides. I was very disappointed at eating and the price was definitely not worth eating that we got. the smashed huh looked like a boiled chicken breast. no gravitation or sauce. So it was very dry. the pulled boar came also without sauce. the white beans were not even edible due to the heavy hand on th... read more.
