yesterday evening to stones lakeside. I made the reservation on open table, it was fast and easy, and I even had to make a change to my original reservation. the food was delicious and the view of the lake is beautiful. the staff was friendly and attentive. can not wait to go back when we can eat outside! doesn't like about Stone's Steakhouse:

Went here for our anniversary dinner (which was noted on our reservation, but not acknowledged in any way). There were only a handful of other people there on a Saturday night. Our waitress was nice, but never asked if we wanted refills on drinks or refilled our waters. They also messed up my cocktail. The food was average at best, very overpriced. Would not go back.
