we got a couple of pizzas and hoagies. they run on time when they offer them a time to pick up. the pizza sauce is good, the crust differs from some other local pizza places, but not on a bad wise, maybe more chewy? the cheese is delicious. but the huagies are missing. the meatballs made the brot really soggy and were smashed and we took up on time, so not sure why, but not a fan of the meatball here. the other is a... read more. What white pizza ordered. dry and gummy teig. as with other pizzas I order. pepperoni mushrooms and extra cheese.

User doesn't like about Pietro's Pizzeria:

cheese mix is blande, hardly a topping, and again the teig tastes chewing, like frozen. bad quality. I can get better from 7Eleven. read more. In Pietro's Pizzeria in Pittsburgh, they prepare crispy pizza using a time-honored method, served straight out of the oven, and you can look forward to traditional Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta.
