I went to the peanut as long as I can remember for wings at different locations, but recently discovered this location on stateline. it is the hands down the most beautiful, cleanest and friendly location they have. I also chased away from their famous wings and tried many different sandwiches and salads. they were all absolutely amazing. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about The Peanut:

I live in the neighbourhood, I am in my 60s and I am a frequent customer. I got a quick beer in the bar tonight and didn't tell anyone. there was a new bartender called kyle and while he paid the $7 tab, he came into my face as if he wanted to fight me. the short, dark haired female bartender had to stand up and ask him to calm down. is this about the restaurant?
