All of the pictures there posted right now are the old restaurant. New tables new wallpaper new staff new menus since the last time I was there which admittedly has been a while. We had the cashew chicken which I thought had some nice vegetables with it and a little bit of fried rice on the side. I ordered it with the optional soup and egg roll addition. The soup could have been a little... read more. What User doesn't like about Rice Cooker:

This is a little different than what I would call traditional Chinese. I really liked the egg rolls, the fried rice is good but different, I wondered if it's brown rice. The crab Rangoon are great big size of your fist and they are sweet, not savory. I had never had sweet Rangoon's until the past year and I just do not like them at all. My husband loved his pepper steak and the beef and broccoli was just good. read more. Rice Cooker from Zionsville prepares delicious dishes, refined with the popular spices and (fish-)sauces of the Thai cuisine, along with plenty of fresh vegetables, seafood and meat. Besides, the creative blend of different menus with new and partially adventurous ingredients is appreciated by the guests - a good case of Asian Fusion. Many visitors also especially enjoy the versatile, tasty Chinese cuisine, On the daily specials there are also several Asian meals.
