I rated the atmosphere only two stars, because I never went through the drive-thru. I love her smart chicken sandwiches. they are just $2 and they are pretty big and delicious, surprising. I love that they have criss cuts that are delicious. the menu is large. it's not just burger. they have salate chickens fall into all. I think eating is good and good. in contrast to wendys order an ultimate cheeseburger and it is... read more. What User doesn't like about Carl's Jr.:

average. I was three times in this chain and almost always forget about something from my order or give me the wrong order. Eating is okay, but this restaurant is definitely missing competent people to check orders. I have witnessed that the employees of the front with the chefs argue in the back of the other customers because the wrong order was made. do not think I will come back to this place. read more.
