New York has really transformed during the pandemic. The queensyard is an excellent addition. It will serve for family gatherings and business meals, alike. Staff was very nice and attentive. The pork chop was divine! Do not let the fact that it's in a mall dissuade you. The ambiance inside sweeps you away to a world of outdoor like beauty. Enjoy! read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Queensyard:

poor service, each distracted bar struggled with basic commands of the wein was corked, had a strong edgy taste. large marnier was served cold when he was asked to be warmed. also the bar had no correct glassware for the grand marnier filet was fair quality, but not great for the price. burger was good, it was cut in the half so my mom could take the rest after home. the server/bus boy has deleted the plate without a...
