Hidden Gem on rt31. Cute place for kids and adults to see their ice cream being created right in front of their eyes! The roll up technique is so fun to watch and they have many options and also different blended drinks/shakes. My 2 and 6 yrs old loved visiting and the staff was very friendly. Each order of ice cream was a lot for a kid so they provided us with lids to take home and then the nice lady stopped me to of... read more. What second time to go there and get sick first time I felt bad on halfway with my ice made and this time I was able to finish it and 20 minutes my friend and I both started to throw the ice looks beautiful and fantasies both not worth getting sick over this place needs to check their running dates read more. A visit to Fanny's Thai Roll Ice Cream is particularly valuable due to the extensive range of coffee and tea specialties, Furthermore, the magical treats of this restaurant sparkle not only in the eyes of our young guests. The dishes are prepared authentically Asian, Furthermore, the visitors love the inventive combination of different menus with new and partially experimental ingredients - a good example of successful Asian Fusion.
