A friend in Houston has told me that I have to eat here when I'm in town. Management was very friendly and helpful. I ordered the PJ plate and enjoyed everything, but the Burrito. The Burrito left more to wish. Queso was interesting, but good. Salsa had a good kick, but not too sharp. read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Elena's:

Food is always great with prompt service. Their pricing, however, is much higher than other comparable restaurants. Their lunch portions cost almost as much as other's dinner portions. I'd go down the road to Carmela's instead. read more. The joint offers a bit of this and a bit of that with its appreciated Tapas, Many guests are especially looking forward to the diverse, delicious Mexican cuisine.
