The restaurant from Beltsville offers 29 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average price of $14.8.

Spectrum Club offers a vibrant atmosphere and lively music, making it an appealing choice for nightlife enthusiasts. However, reviews reveal a disparity in the dining experience, with some dishes, especially the fish and suya, falling short of expectations in quality and freshness. Concerns over cleanliness and customer service have also been noted, particularly regarding parking issues and disrespectful staff interactions. While some patrons appreciate the welcoming vibe and shout out exceptional staff like Muna and Kiki, the overall sentiment suggests potential visitors should weigh these mixed experiences before planning their night out.
