What User likes about The Oak Leaf At Aston Oaks: with a big party and for a big party we had quite good service. the food looked good and usually nice portions. we had a problem with the pommes fries. they were so salty that no one could eat them, so we sent them back, but they forgot to take them off from my friends. she said she had already called the card and could not take it off. I paid money for my order and waited for my change that this same waitress never... read more.
