Went to San Antonio for my birthday and wanted a good breakfast. This place did not disappoint. It's literally a hidden gem on the river walk. The line was long but moving. Every person working was polite. There was a gentleman walking around asking everyone if they needed anything and making sure us people in line were aware of specials. Had to be the owner or manager. Whomever, he was very nice. We got our food I h... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Shawn Porter doesn't like about La Villita Cafe:

Randomly ended up here when starting our River Walk journey. Chicken Cordon Bleu was good flavor, but a chicken strip, not a patty or thigh. Ended up eating half because the rest was just bread. Fake cheese on the brisket sandwich was not enough to save the dryness either. Good smokiness, though. Fries sucked. Chili was too thin but good flavor... And my wife didn't like her coffee.
